A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backsache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abominal region, dries up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

TO FULFIL SUICIDE PACT.

When the La Provence steamed down New York bay yesterday morning, bound for Havre, there stood on her deck one who looked his last on America, the land of his adoption, for he is on his way to Lecco, in Lombardi, Italy, to commit suicide on the grave of his sweetheart.

Luigi Contarimi is the man's name.

He is but twenty-from years old and

He is but twenty-four years old, and his return is in compliance with the wish of Josephine Ballantini, expressed in her letter to him, written just before she drank a fatal potion, rather than marry one whom her parents would force up-

Luigi has been in America for four years. Soon after his arrival he went to Oaklahoms, where he prospered and where he is now a wealthy ranch owner. When he left Lecco he bade good by to Josephine. She yowed to wait for him until he could provide a home for her in the wonderful country beyond the As time sped, the parents of Josephine also prospered. They no longer smiled upon the pretensions of Luigi, but upon the pretensions of Luigi, but picked out a young man of the village for their son-in-law, and Josephine was told that she must become his wife.

Josephine wrote to Luigi and told him her trouble, but she swore that she would remain true to him. She would die first, she said. Parental authority was insistent, however, and the day was set for the wedding. All waited the bride, but she came not. Then she was found lying dead, and by her side was the letter to Luigi. In it she said that she could not live without him, and she asked that he join her in the great beyond.

When Luigi received the letter he settled his affairs in Oklahoma and sped to New York. On the way he saw his brother Antonio in Paterson, to whom he told his resolve.

Antonia was on the pier, in New York yesterday, and begged his brother to reconsider. Luigi was obdurate. Antonia fell upon his knees. He implored; he prayed. His screams as the vessel pulled out were terrifying, and he was finally led away.

And from the taffrail Luigi waved his last farewell to home and hope.

Deficiency in Church Funds,

It is understood that the French bishops and archbishops assembled in Paris to devise means of meeting the provisions of the law providing for the separation of church and State, without violating the laws of the church, devoted yesterdsy to the discussion of the resources of the church in an effort to discover some method of providing funds to supply the deficiences occasioned by the withdrawal of the budget for the depart-

The prelates are said to have recognized the impossibility of laying down an identical system for town and country and consequently decided that each dis-cese shall in future organize its resources according to circumstances. It was stated on some authority that the prelates will not make any proposal for maintaining the status quo until Decem-ber, when the church and State separa-tion law goes into full force.

If the government decides to expel the clergy from their churches the episcopate will then consider taking further action to safeguard their interests. It was further asserted that the clergy in general will not be informed of the resolutions adopted by the bishops until the Pope's approval of them has been ob-tained, after which diocesan councils will be called and the text of the resolutions will be communicated to them.

Scarcity of Principals. Superintendent Eggleston, of the Department of Public Instruction, says Century Carpet there are several high schools in Virginia which have no principal for the coming term. "The schools want principals at this time," he said, "and there is one school, about ready to open, at Atlees, which elected a man and who declined. declined. The pay is not too great, but it shows that pay is better in most any other calling, vocation or profession than teaching. There is another reason: In every section of the State there is a wonderful increase in school matters. Teachers are in demand, and men who are qualified to take charge of schools as principals are growing fewer each year— either taking such courses as will fit them for better and higher work than as principals of schools in small places or are getting into the other professions —medicine, dentistry, law, engineering, mechanics, electricity or something else than schoolteaching. Teachers and principals are in demand in all parts of Even doctors prescribe it for its healthfulness. Easiest to digest and satisfying
